NOVEMBER 2011

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Brothers . . .

October 2011 has been one of our most active months in recent years. Our PGK Dinner on October 8th was, as usual, a great time! Congratulations to Knight of the Year, Jim Matits, and Family of the Year, Kathy and Bill Dowling.

The Membership Drive and Open House of October 8th and 9th generated some interest in the Council. We'll be following up with several gentlemen and hopefully we will soon have some new brothers.

Several brothers participated in the annual Ahr Star Dinner on October 6th. Once again this was a very successful event and proceeds will be going to two very needy children. Thanks to Bob (Sabio) and Jules Sabo, "Diamond" Jack Keenan, Joe "Geis Geis Baby" Geis, John "the pastoral" Brower, the Dynamic Duo of Golden: Bob & Son, Bob "Flapjack" Banasiak, Mike "Gimme a %#@!" Choma, Rick "Reheat & Serve" Ciktor, Ken "not just another brick in the" Wahl, Eddie "Big Chef-Big Chief" Lenart, and Jimmy "How bout it Hollywood" Matits.

Our Oktoberfest on the 22nd was incredibly successful! Over 200 people attended the event and enjoyed great German, food, music, and beverages. Thanks to event Chairman, Jim Matits for his hard work!

The Kid's Halloween Party on the 29th was a ghoulishly great time! We had about 45 people (kids and parents) in attendance. Thanks to John Brower PGK, Nora Brower, Jim and Rose Matits, Bob Sabo PGK, Kevin and Donna Marlowe, Jack Keenan PGK, and Rose and Marjorie Sullivan for decorating and helping out with the food and games. Unfortunately, the Adult party on the night of the 29th was canceled due to the very inclement weather.

At the Social meeting on November 1st, the membership presented donations to the Woodbridge Fire Department and Woodbridge PBA for their chosen charities. I'd like to thank Detective Tom Della Salla, VP of PBA, and Fire Fighter Mike Minkler for coming out to accept the donations.

Finally, it is with great pride and joy that I announce to our membership that our Worthy Chaplain has been elevated to Monsignor. Congratulations Monsignor Charles Cicerale!

Vivat Jesus!

Bishop Lori Testifies on Threats to Religious Liberty, Urges Action

By Michelle Bauman

Washington D.C., Oct 26, 2011 / 07:30 pm (CNA/EWTN News).- The U.S. bishops' point man on religious liberty urged the U.S. Congress to protect the right to religious freedom in America because of several actions taken by the Obama administration.

"Religious liberty is not merely one right among others, but enjoys a certain primacy," Bishop William E. Lori said in his Oct. 26 testimony before the House Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on the Constitution.

"Not coincidentally, religious liberty is first on the list in the Bill of Rights, the charter of our Nation's most cherished and fundamental freedoms," he said.

Bishop Lori was announced as the first chairman of the bishops' Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty on Sept. 29, 2011.

Bishop Lori said that his brother bishops are greatly concerned by recent attacks on religious freedom. In his testimony, he outlined several recent "threats to religious liberty" in the United States.

Bishop Lori criticized regulations issued in August by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to require coverage of sterilization and contraception, including abortifacients, in nearly all private health insurance plans. He explained that the religious exemption included in the regulations is too narrow to apply to most Catholic organizations.

The bishop also called attention to new requirements for contractors who work with human trafficking victims. Due to these regulations, he said, the bishops' Migration and Refugee Services, which previously worked with the government to aid victims of trafficking "will be barred from participation in the program because they cannot in conscience provide the 'full range' of reproductive services – namely, abortion and contraception."

Likewise, Bishop Lori noted, the State Department's U.S. Agency for International Development is increasingly requiring contractors to provide contraception in relief and development programs across the world. Doing so, he explained, will exclude organizations such as Catholic Relief Services from "helping to prevent and treat AIDS in Africa and other developing nations."

The bishop also criticized the federal Department of Justice for not only failing to defend the Defense of Marriage Act but also "filing briefs actively attacking DOMA's constitutionality, claiming that supporters of the law could only have been motivated by bias and prejudice."

He said the Department of Justice has further undermined religious liberty in the "ministerial exception" case, Hosanna Tabor v. EEOC, which is currently before the Supreme Court. He said that the department "needlessly attacked the very existence of the exception, in opposition to a vast coalition of religious groups urging its preservation through their amicus curiae briefs."

Bishop Lori also expressed disappointment in a failure to adequately protect religious liberty at the state level. He gave the example of county clerks in New York who are facing legal action for refusing to take part in granting same-sex unions, and a case involving Catholic Charities in Illinois being prevented from providing foster care because they recognize "the unique value of man-woman marriage for the well-being of children."

The bishop acknowledged that the underlying problem is rooted in American culture, which must ultimately be addressed. In the meantime, he said, Congress must make an effort to "treat the symptoms immediately, lest the disease spread so quickly that the patient is overcome before the ultimate cure can be formulated and delivered."

Bishop Lori applauded three bills currently in Congress to fight the insurance contraception mandate and other health care concerns.

He said that the Protect Life Act, the Abortion Non-Discrimination Act and the Respect for Rights of Conscience Act all "go a long way toward guaranteeing religious liberty and freedom of conscience for religious employers, health insurers, and health care providers."

"United with my brother bishops, and in the name of religious liberty, I urge these three bills be swiftly passed by Congress so they may be signed into law."

In response to the regulations placed on religious human service providers, Bishop Lori urged "a congressional hearing or other form of investigation to ensure compliance with the applicable conscience laws, as well as to identify how these new requirements came to be imposed."

Regarding the Defense of Marriage Act, he called on Congress to “resist legislative efforts to repeal the law.” He added that the Department of Justice’s “decisions to abandon both DOMA and the ‘ministerial exception’ seem to warrant congressional inquiry.”

The bishop urged Congress to immediately take these measures to protect the religious freedom that belongs to individuals as well as “churches and other religious institutions.”

Religious liberty, he said, is endowed by our Creator and is therefore “prior to the state itself.”

“Thus government has a perennial obligation to acknowledge and protect religious liberty as fundamental, no matter the moral and political trends of the moment,” he said.

End

FROM OUR WORTHY CHAPLAIN ... MSGR. CHARLES CICERALE

This 30th Sunday of Ordinary Time is also World Mission Sunday. A moment in time to reflect and celebrate as Catholics worldwide unite in word and sacrament to “celebrate the hope that saves”, Jesus himself. We pray for the church’s missionary work, and we give generously to the society for the Propagation of the Faith. We all need to propagate this great gift of faith in the Risen Christ that sustains us and gives us hope.

To learn more about our Missionaries and their sacrifices and accomplishments that Mission Sunday helps make possible, please visit: www.amamissionary.org and thank you for being a partner in this great work of our church in spreading the good news of Jesus Christ.

What follows are highlights of Pope Benedict’s World Mission Sunday message;

Highlights of Pope Benedict’s World Mission Sunday Message

Mission is the most precious service that the Church can render to humanity and to every individual seeking profound reasons for living his or her existence to the full. In fact the ceaseless proclamation of the Gospel also revitalizes the Church; it renews her pastoral methods so that they may be ever more suited to new situations, also those that require a new evangelization, and animated by missionary thrust.

All those who have met the risen Lord have felt the need to proclaim him to others, as did the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. After recognizing the Lord in the breaking of bread, they “set out that instant and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven assembled” and told them what had happened to them on the road. The beneficiaries of the Gospel proclamation are all peoples.

The task has not lost any of its urgency. Indeed, “the mission of Christ the Redeemer, which is entrusted to the Church, is still very far from completion.” We cannot be content when we consider that, after two thousand years, there are still peoples who do not know Christ and have not yet heard his message of salvation.

The universal mission involves everyone, everything and always. All activities are also involved in this. The Church’s missionary dimension is essential; therefore it must always be kept in mind. World Mission Sunday is not an isolated moment in the year, but a precious occasion for pausing to reflect on whether and how we respond to the missionary vocation: an essential response for the life of the Church.

In missionary animation particular attention has always been given to solidarity. This is also one of the objectives of World Mission Sunday, which, through the Pontifical Mission Societies, appeals for help to carry our evangelizing activities in mission territories. Proclaiming the Gospel the Church takes human life to heart in the fullest sense.

Did you know that Catholics comprise over 40% of the metropolitan area population. The Diocese of New York, Brooklyn, Rockville Center, Bridgeport, Newark, Trenton, Metuchen, Paterson and Camden make up these New York Metropolitan area.
